

April 2024

Thank you for your interest in the post of Director of Primary Education at Agape Multi-Academy Trust.

The Piggott School and Altwood C of E School formed The Agape Multi-Academy Trust on 1st March 2024. The Trust has mixed articles so that Church and non-Church schools are able to join the MAT.

Robert Piggott Infants School and Robert Piggott Junior School are planning to join Agape later this year. The Agape Trust's strategic plan is to grow to include several other primary and secondary schools over the coming years.

We are looking for an experienced primary school leader to join the work of the Trust.

This will initially be on a fixed term, part-time basis of one or two days per week until 31st August 2025. This could be as a sabbatical/ part time release from their current headship position, or may suit a recently retired headteacher.

The successful candidate will have responsibility for the strategic leadership, organisation and management of the primary phase of the Trust. Reporting to the CEO, they will secure continued success, providing high quality education which enables all pupils to fulfil their potential.

The salary will be competitive and negotiable dependent upon the successful candidate's experience and skill set.

Agape is pronounced with three syllables: 'A-ga-pay'. The term Agape refers to unconditional love. Jesus talks about and refers to Agape love. Christians believe this is the highest type of love, and it is the love that Jesus has for all of us. Agape involves feeling so much love for someone that you put them before yourself.

Applicants for the Primary Director role do not need to be practising Christians but must support the Christian ethos of the Trust.

The following document needs to be completed to apply for the post:
