Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the post of Classroom Teacher at The Charvil Piggott Primary School.

Our mission is to be a school which inspires and encourages the highest achievement for each and every child. I believe that our school provides the correct balance and blend of academic challenge, personal care and enrichment that fosters the holistic development of each and every child.

The quality of teaching and learning at our school enables us to achieve our aim to help every child to develop into the very best they can be: to be independent in their thinking, to value lifelong learning, to be open to new ideas, to encourage respect and tolerance.

The care and guidance offered at our school, by the outstanding staff, provides a culture and ethos, which successfully helps every child feel safe, happy and challenged. Our pupils are a delight to teach with Ofsted grading us outstanding for behaviour, safety and welfare. Our 2016 SIAMS inspection judgement was also outstanding.

Applicants for this post do not need to be a practising Christian, but must promote and uphold our school Christian values of Respect, Equality, Honesty, Dedication, Courage and Love.

The following documents need to be completed to apply for the post.

1. Application form
2. Covering letter

Please also visit our website for additional information about the school and to download our prospectus. Prospective candidates are also most welcome to make an appointment with Mrs Haynes to visit the school, please email charvil@piggottschool.org.

- The deadline for applications is 10am, Monday 28th January 2019

Please do not hesitate to contact the school if you have any questions about the application or appointment process.

The Charvil Piggott Primary School is a unique and inspiring school and I look forward to welcoming successful applicants to our learning community for interview.

I very much look forward to receiving your application.

Yours faithfully,

D J Gray
