An opportunity has arisen for a Careers Advisor to provide mentoring, careers advice, information and guidance to students regarding future educational choices and career pathways. You will be jointly responsible for organising and implementing the comprehensive in-house careers programme as well as working with external providers. The role will also include providing pastoral assistance to students and staff as part of the school's pastoral team.

Holding a Level-6 qualification in Career Guidance and Development would be desirable, although not essential for this role.

The Piggott School is a mixed Church of England academy with 1837 on roll situated near Twyford, between Maidenhead and Reading.
