18 th Sept	Eve While Eve isn't the most upstanding woman in the Bible, she's certainly one of the most influential. By giving into evil, she reminds the world that while God is good, Satan's temptations are not. Eve in the Bible: (Genesis 3:1-6)	International Day of Peace	Mutual Respect & Tolerance of those with Different Faiths and Beliefs
25 th Sept	Jochebed In the book of Exodus, Jochebed has to put her baby's life into God's hands during the time when the Pharaoh issued a decree to kill all Hebrew baby boys by putting them in the Nile River. If this sounds familiar, then it's probably because this is the story of Moses, Jochebed's son, who was saved by his mother and his older sister, Miriam. Jochebed in the Bible: (Exodus 2:1-3)	European Day of Languages	Mutual Respect & Tolerance of those with Different Faiths and Beliefs
2 nd Oct	Mary Magdalene Mary Magdalene is an oft-misunderstood Biblical figure, but she was certainly a faithful follower of Jesus. After being healed by Him, she travelled with Him and witnessed his crucifixion, burial, and resurrection. Mary Magdalene in the Bible: (John 20:11-16)	Black History Month (Oct)	Mutual Respect & Tolerance of those with Different Faiths and Beliefs
9 th Oct	Deborah As the only female judge mentioned in the Bible, Deborah is known for being a compassionate leader (of which there weren't many in Biblical times). She	World Mental Health Day/World	Individual Liberty

	worked to purge the nation of those who kept Israel spiritually complacent and under slavery to the Canaanites, returning to worship of the one true God. Deborah in the Bible: (Judges 4:4-9)
16 st Oct	Rachel Rachel patiently waited to marry her love Jacob after being cruelly deceived by her father, who tricked Jacob into marrying her sister, Leah. Eventually, Rachel's prayers were answered, and although she was childless at first, she became the mother to Joseph and Benjamin. Rachel in the Bible: (Genesis 30:17-24)	Student Voice	Individual Liberty
30 th Oct	Esther Queen Esther showed great courage by telling the Persian king about a plan to assassinate him, and later, a plan to have all the Jews in Persia killed. With the power of prayer and bravery, she saved her people. Esther in the Bible: (Esther 8:3-6)	International Street Awareness Week	The Rule of Law
6 th Nov	Miriam The prophetess Miriam was Moses' older sister, and she helped save him as a baby. Their mother left him in a basket to protect him from being killed by Pharaoh, and when Pharaoh's daughter found him and took pity on him, Miriam offered up their mother to nurse him so they could stay together. Miriam in the Bible: (Exodus 15:20-21)	Remembrance	Mutual Respect & Tolerance of those with Different Faiths and Beliefs
13 th Nov	Abigail First mentioned in 1 Samuel, Abigail was a woman in a deeply unhappy marriage who — after managing to act quickly to prevent a battle and bloodshed from occurring — ends up saving many lives through her courage. Abigail in the Bible: (1 Samuel 25:32-35)	Anti-bullying week Readifood collection/ Harvest	Democracy
20 th Nov	Elizabeth Similar to Sarah, Elizabeth was too old to conceive a child — but God made it possible. She went on to give birth to John the Baptist, who told the world of its coming saviour, Jesus Christ.	Road Safety Week	The Rule of Law

	Elizabeth in the Bible: (Luke 1:21-25)
27 th Nov	Mary of Bethany The sister of Martha and Lazarus, Mary always put Jesus first. While she was hosting Him at her home with Martha, He commended her for "choosing the better" by sitting at His feet instead of being swayed by housework and entertaining duties. Mary of Bethany in the Bible: (Luke 10:38-42)	International Day of Persons with Disabilities	Mutual Respect & Tolerance of those with Different Faiths and Beliefs
4 th Dec	Martha While Mary's sister Martha was chastised by Jesus for putting her hosting duties above learning Jesus' word, she was still a devoted follower who wanted Jesus to be comfortable and waited upon. Martha in the Bible: (John 11:17-24)	World Human Rights Day	Democracy
11 th Dec	Christmas and: Mary of Nazareth As the mother of Jesus, Mary's all-important role in the Bible goes without saying. After all, she was the one who gave birth to the world's saviour when she was just a teen, just as the angel Gabriel said she would. Mary of Nazareth in the Bible: (Luke 1:26-33)	Christmas' around the world	Mutual Respect & Tolerance of those with Different Faiths and Beliefs
1 st Jan	Rachel (continued) Rachel patiently waited to marry her love Jacob after being cruelly deceived by her father, who tricked Jacob into marrying her sister, Leah.
