Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, The Piggott School encourages an informal resolution in the first instance. This can be undertaken by communicating the concern or complaint in writing to Mrs Vicky Middleton, Exams Officer, indicating the details of the concern or complaint.

The Exams Officer will investigate accordingly and findings will be communicated back to the candidate/parent within an agreed timeframe, and a resolution proposed.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to Mrs Vicky Middleton, Exams Officer. Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within 2 working days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must - Complete a Complaints and Appeals Form, available from the Exams Officer

- Completed forms should be returned to Mr Alex MacLeod, Head of Centre

Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 2 working days.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The Head of Centre, or a member of the Senior Leadership Team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome), will thoroughly investigate the complaint using all the available evidence and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within two working weeks.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must again complete a Complaints and Appeal form and return to Mr Alex MacLeod, Head of Centre.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within 2 working days.

The appeal will be referred to the Chair of Governors (or a special committee of the Governing Board) for consideration.

It will be the responsibility of The Chair of Governors to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
